

BOB MARLEY OUTERNATIONAL: A REGGAE CELEBRATION WITH PURPOSE

BY RAS BANAMUNGU

In a rhythmic tribute that has stood the test of time, the 43rd Bob Marley Outernational is set to enchant reggae enthusiasts on Sunday, February 11, 2024, at Port Beach Brewery, North Fremantle. General Justice, the visionary behind this annual commemoration since 1981, promises a day of music, culture, and philanthropy.

Dedicated to the memory of the legendary Bob Marley, the event serves a greater purpose by raising funds for the Indigenous Literacy Foundation. With a firm belief that Marley would endorse this cause, the organizers aim to make a positive impact beyond the realms of music.

This year's lineup is nothing short of spectacular, featuring local reggae, dancehall, and dub talents, alongside renowned Australian artists such as Jah Tung from Sydney, Sazzy Alile from Melbourne, and Chicca from Broome.

The diverse musical journey will include performances by Cabra Roots, Enque, The U-Nites, Rochelle, Jah Dawtaz, Area 345, Smooch, Nyirey Kickett, and an impressive array of DJs including Mumma Trees, General Justice, Simba, Gridlock, Sista Che , Livity Sounds, Napthy, DJ Prez, D-Lux, DJ Kiteloo & Familyman.

The festivities kick off at noon and continue until midnight, featuring two stages, Afro-Caribbean culinary delights, reggae-themed stalls, and a cinematic journey through Bob Marley's legacy. The event also emphasizes inclusivity by offering limited tickets at the gate for those who miss out online, with cash being the sole mode of payment.

As the rhythmic beats resonate, and the community gathers, the 43rd Bob Marley Outernational promises to be more than a musical celebration—it stands as a testament to the enduring spirit of Bob Marley and the universal language of reggae.
