

FREQ DUB FEST: A GROUNDBREAKING CELEBRATION OF DUB AND SOUND SYSTEM CULTURE

BY RAS BANAMUNGU

Ring the alarm and spread the word, because Western Australia is about to witness history in the making with the inaugural Freq Dub Fest! Organized by the Red Earth Dub Circus Crew, this one-day extravaganza promises to usher in a new era of Dub and Sound System culture in the region, uniting communities and celebrating all things offbeat.

Scheduled for a full Sunday with 11 hours of non-stop good vibes, the Freq Dub Fest boasts an impressive lineup featuring international, interstate, and local talent, alongside circus performers, food trucks, and market stalls. Attendees can expect a fusion of Reggae, Roots, Dub, and Steppas music, as well as a shared love for global Sound System Culture.

Headlining the event is none other than Mad Professor, the legendary Electronic Dub producer hailing from the UK. Known for his pioneering work in Dub music and collaborations with artists spanning across genres, Mad Professor promises to dub the audience senseless with his signature sound.

Joining him are acts like No Ice Cream Sound from the UK, Stick Mareebo, Charlies Flat, KBI Sound System, Acid Dub Foundation from Germany/UK, and more, each bringing their unique flavor to the festival.
