

ÖZERGUN RELEASES NEW SINGLE "ON THE BRINK" FROM EP "INTERTWINED"

BY RAS BANAMUNGU

Naarm/Melbourne, February 23, 2024 - Today, Özergun, the six-piece sensation originating from Naarm/Melbourne, has unleashed their latest single, "On The Brink," extracted from their EP "Intertwined." This release promises to captivate audiences with its innovative blend of rock, funk, jazz, folk, and world music.

Each member of Özergun brings a distinctive ethnic background and musical style to the table, resulting in a sound that defies conventional labels. "On The Brink" serves as a testament to the band's boundary-pushing creativity and improvisational skills, elevating their artistry to new heights.

This single delves into the pressing issues of global environmental crises, offering a nuanced perspective on challenges such as land degradation, water scarcity, and atmospheric pollution. Rather than assigning blame, Özergun's music fosters a sense of unity, urging listeners to confront these issues collectively.

ÖZERGÜN RELEASES NEW SINGLE "ON THE BRINK" FROM EP "INTERTWINED"

BY RAS BANAMUNGU

The track takes listeners on a sonic journey, seamlessly blending Mediterranean-infused hip-hop rhythms with elements of rock-reggae fusion. Featuring mesmerizing sax solos and soulful guitar riffs, "On The Brink" offers a sensory experience that resonates deeply with audiences.

Listeners can now download "On The Brink" and embark on a musical odyssey that transcends boundaries and inspires action.

For further information and interview opportunities, please contact Australian Radio Promotion.