Date and Time: Sun 25th Feb 2024, 4:00 pm – 6:00 pm AWST

Location: Hillview Intercultural Community Centre, 1-3 Hill View Pl, Bentley WA 6102, Australia

The Victoria Park Centre for the Arts is set to host the third installment of its cultural sharing series, this time spotlighting the vibrant and diverse culture of Rwanda. Scheduled for Sunday, February 25th, 2024, from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm AWST at the Hillview Intercultural Community Centre, the event promises an enriching experience for attendees of all ages.

The focal point of the celebration will be the Indatwa-Rwanda Cultural Group, renowned for its captivating performances of traditional Rwandan music and dance. Attendees will have the opportunity to immerse themselves in the rhythms and movements of Rwandan heritage through a series of live demonstrations and performances. Additionally, a short dance lesson will be provided, allowing participants to try their hand at mastering the intricate steps of Rwandan dance.

In addition to the captivating performances, the event will feature a cultural presentation shedding light on various aspects of Rwandan customs, traditions, and history. From language and attire to rituals and ceremonies, attendees will gain a deeper understanding of the rich tapestry that comprises Rwandan culture.
