

YOUNG MUSICAL SENSATION KAILASH TAKES THE REGGAE WORLD BY STORM

BY RAS BANAMUNGU

At just 12 years old, Kailash is already leaving an indelible mark on the music scene, establishing himself as a prodigious talent in the realm of reggae. Bursting onto the stage with a voice that belies his age, Kailash captivated audiences from the outset, making waves with his debut performance at the Right Vibes Festival in Santa Cruz, CA, back in June 2021.

Since then, Kailash's star has only continued to rise, as he's collaborated with a roster of esteemed reggae musicians, including luminaries such as Don Carlos, Slightly Stoopid, and Ponto de Equilibrio. His exceptional vocal prowess and magnetic stage presence have earned him accolades, including a nomination for Best New Young Artist at the International Reggae and World Music Awards (IRAWMA) in 2021.

In August of the same year, Kailash took to the iconic stage of Red Rocks Amphitheater in Colorado, enchanting a crowd of 9,000 alongside Don Carlos and Slightly Stoopid. This performance catapulted him into the spotlight, leading to a whirlwind of appearances at prominent venues and festivals across California, including Petco Park, Cali Vibes, and the renowned Cali Roots Sessions SF.
